WASHINGTON AGFORESTRY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM DEVELOPS:

- ❖ Leaders who communicate skillfully, collaborate on tough issues, seek common sense solutions, understand policy development, and work effectively with legislators and members of Congress.
- ❖ Leaders who are well informed on the social, environmental, and water issues which impact our local communities, the state and the nation.
- ❖ Leaders who constitute a dynamic network that is working daily to keep Washington State's natural resource industries and rural communities vibrant, healthy and sustainable.
- ❖ Leaders with the tools necessary to enhance skills and contribute to the long-term success of farms, forests, ranches, allied businesses and organizations.
- ❖ Leaders who understand the economic impacts that natural resource industries make in Washington State and in global markets.
